

My name is HAPPIAMA. I am a horn. My hobby is horn activity. I became ambushed by a horn. Therefore, I am required. Horn will speak down with one blow. Hair was also hot. Feeling was also hot. I want the sponge of movement of a battle. I would like to meet the strongest enemy. I would like to meet a matchless enemy. And I would like to push down every enemy. It is because I am a one punch man.

Hot and Summer is coming!!

AH

Additionally, the apparent head of the monsters seems to have been crushed.

With the Tornado of Terror's telekinesis, the underground base was completely annihilated.

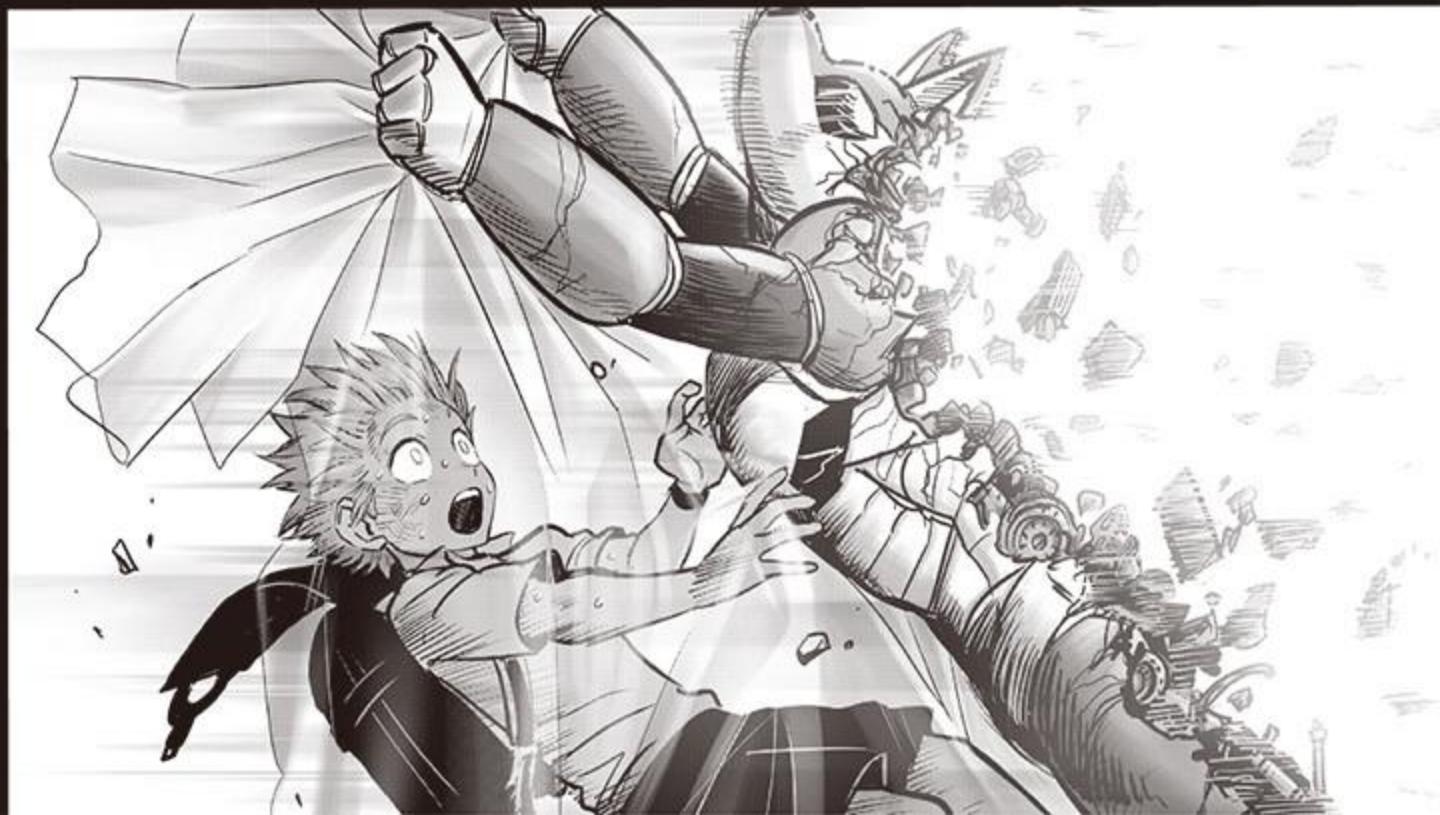

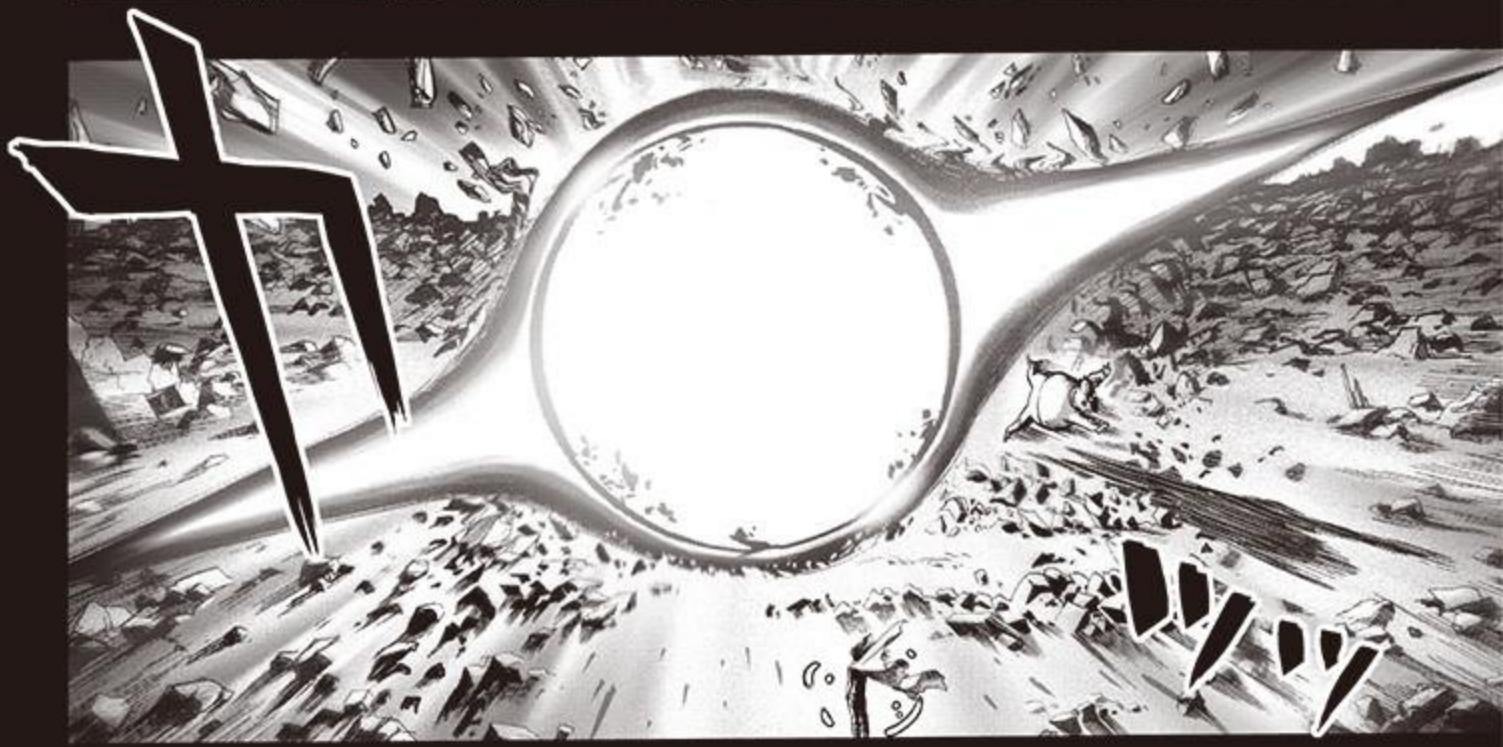

While Tatsumaki had exhausted her strength and was nearing her limits, S-class hero Zombieman and A-class hero Sweet Mask were caught in a surprise attack. Their current statuses are unknown.

A number of powerful surviving cadre-class monsters then appeared from the earth.

As for me

...

...

At this time on the surface, I predict that the Hero Association's main forces are in critical condition.

I barely managed to survive by escaping into an opening in the rubble.

The power of the weapons you possess is beyond that of any lone hero. If you don't take a cooperative stance toward the Hero Association here, you may be seen as a threat to them, jeopardizing your current position.

Metal Knight.....
...no, Doctor Bofoi.

Additionaly ...

Now is the time. I strongly urge you to rise up and assist us.

Dr. Bofoi

Even if I die,
I would like to add
that the extraction of Zombieman, who is poised to be the next psychological pillar of the Hero Association, should be prioritized.
