I'VE DEFEATED COUNTLESS SUPERHUMANS, SUBTERRANEAN MONSTERS, TERRORISTS AND EVIL MILITANT ORGANIZATIONS.

IT'S BEEN THREE YEARS SINCE I BECAME A HERO FOR FUN.

EVERYONE SHOULD KNOW ABOUT ME BY NOW!

I SHOULD HAVE FANS!

I'VE NEVER SEEN ANOTHER HERO DO AS MUCH AS ME!

IT'S WEIRD THAT I HAVE TO LIVE SUCH A MEAGER EXISTENCE IN THIS GHOST TOWN!

"I DON'T KNOW
YOU."

DO YOU
KNOW WHAT SONIC SAID
TO ME?

WHEN VILLAINS
APPEARED,
I THRASHED
'EM, BUT
NO ONE REMEMBERS!

AND THE TOWNSPEOPLE THOUGHT
I WAS A TERRORIST!

MASTER!

YOU
SAID
YOU'RE A HERO
FOR FUN
...

THEY SAID IT
WAS DUE TO THE MUMEN RIDER.

THE MORNING
NEWS DID NOT MENTION THE
ROLE OF MASTER
SAITAMA OR SPEED-O'-SOUND
SONIC (HEH HEH)
IN DEFEATING
THE PARADISERS.

The Hero Registry lists the names of heroes who have taken physical strength and justice tests at Hero Association facilities around the country, met certain standards, and received permission to name themselves official heroes. Those recognized by the association as professional heroes may receive funds out of money donated to the association through its fundraising efforts. Heroes listed in the Hero Registry may also appear in ability and popularity rankings. The world pays a great deal of attention to those heroes, and many of them have fan clubs.

Note

What the world refers to as heroes are those professional heroes listed in the registry. Any unlisted individual claiming to be a hero, no matter how active, is viewed askance and considered nothing more than a pervy freak who spouts irresponsible nonsense.
